

Aspiration Awards 2025

Terms and conditions

Eligibility criteria

You can nominate a school / college / training provider / teacher / tutor / learner or apprentice for any award, taking into account the overall requirements for each award category, as outlined below.

1. Against All Odds

Recognises a learner or apprentice who has overcome difficult personal circumstances to achieve success. This may include overcoming personal challenges (physical, emotional, financial – for example), or caring for others whilst studying and still going on to achieve.

2. Apprentice of the Year

Recognises an exceptional apprentice for their work, within their apprenticeship in the workplace or related to their studies. This may include high performance, innovative approaches to their work, going the extra mile, or using what they've learned during their apprenticeship to create an opportunity for themselves to strengthen their achievements.

3. Centre of the Year

Recognises a school / college / training provider that is shaping smarter learning by going above and beyond to create transformational learning experiences and implement innovative approaches. This could include initiatives to support learners or apprentices, introducing programmes or processes to support learner or apprentice outcomes, or increasing additional support to ensure success.

This year, we'll be awarding an overall centre of the year as well as highly commended to the following subcategories:

Accreditation Centre of the Year

International Centre of the Year

4. Learner of the Year

Recognises an exceptional learner for their work, either within their programme of study or in relation to a particular project related to their studies. This may include high performance or achievement rates, innovative ways of presenting work, going the extra mile, conducting voluntary work alongside their studies, or using what they've learned during their qualification to create an opportunity for themselves to strengthen their record of achievement.

This year, we'll be awarding an overall learner of the year as well as highly commended to the following subcategories:

- Adult Learner of the Year
- T Level Student of the Year
- V Cert Pupil of the Year
- Level 3 Learner of the Year.

Learners must be registered on the NCFE Portal.

5. Support Staff of the Year

Recognises a member of behind-the-scenes staff who has gone above and beyond to help learners or their colleagues. This award is open to Exams Officers, Teaching Assistants, Facilities, Pastoral or Support Staff, or any other non-teaching roles within education.

This year, we'll be awarding an overall winner as well as highly commended to:

-Exams Officer of the Year

6. Teacher / Tutor of the Year

Recognises a teacher or tutor who has gone above and beyond to support their learner or apprentices. This could be anything from supporting a learner or apprentice facing difficult circumstances to ensure they can continue with their studies and achieve, helping their learners or apprentices to overcome obstacles to flourish and surpass expectations, or delivering innovative and high quality teaching that resonates. This teacher or tutor must either teach an NCFE qualification or support an apprentice who is going through EPA with NCFE.
