About this qualification

This qualification will develop the knowledge and skills needed when working with food in health and social care and early years and childcare settings. It is suitable for anyone who may be preparing for a new role or those working in a role that involves handling food safely. This qualification is ideal for those who do not have access to the workplace but would still like a qualification to help prepare them for further training, as learners can complete the knowledge-only unit.

Qualification structure

To gain this qualification, learners must achieve 2 credits by completing one of the two units.

Units

A/503/2495 Principles of food safety when providing food and drink for individuals
T/601/9450 Meet food safety requirements when providing food and drink for individuals

Assessment

This qualification is internally assessed and externally quality assured via a portfolio of evidence.

Placement requirements

You will need to be working, volunteering or on practical placement as you need to show competence in both knowledge and skills. If you take the knowledge-only unit you do not need access to the workplace.
