

Features and benefits

Level 2 Principles of Warehousing and Storage (603/0634/8)

Minimum entry age: 16

Resources: Learning Curve Group

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
Learners can progress to employment within the warehousing and storage industry or further study	Progression opportunities provide motivation for successful completion	Varied progression opportunities provide learners with options and incentives to do well	Employers can recruit employees with current and relevant knowledge of the sector
Assessed via a portfolio of evidence	This is a robust method of assessment which is flexible for centres to deliver	A portfolio of evidence allows for many different types of learning styles, so learners can demonstrate their learning in the way that suits them best	Employers will be able to view the portfolio to gain a greater understanding of the learners' skills and experience
Designed with industry experts to ensure content is relevant, current and meets employers' needs	Content is relevant and current	Learning has been developed with employers in mind	Employers in this sector know that learners have been trained to employer-approved standards
Designed with Tutors to ensure that delivery is realistic for the sector	Tutors inform the design to ensure that it is practicable and deliverable within resource restraints	A varied mode of delivery across units	Content has been developed by those with in-depth knowledge of the sector
Knowledge based qualification that will support 19+ learners' progression into employment	Can deliver and assess the qualification without the need for access to a warehouse or a simulated storage environment	Delivery method is more flexible so allows more centres to deliver the qualification	Will increase the number of potential employees with existing knowledge of the warehousing and storage industry

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
Existing principles of warehousing and storage qualifications consist of one large unit. Our qualification breaks the knowledge down to smaller units.	Allows centres to certificate learners on the units they have achieved should they not complete the qualification	Allows learners to receive a certificate for the units they have achieved should they not complete the qualification	Employers will be able to see which elements of the qualification the learner has completed on their unit summary or unit certificate(s)