Entry guidance

All trainee teachers joining the generic qualification programme should undertake an initial assessment of skills in English, mathematics and information and communications technology (ICT). They should record their development needs and, where applicable, agree an action plan to address them. If trainees join the qualification programme having already undertaken an initial assessment of their English, mathematics and ICT skills, their record of development needs and any previous action taken to address them should be reviewed and updated as required.

Potential teacher trainees wishing to take any of the specialist optional units will need to evidence level 3 personal skills in English or mathematics, as appropriate. The entry criteria and how they can be evidenced can be found in Criteria for entry to mathematics (numeracy) and English (literacy and ESOL) teacher training in the lifelong learning sector (Lifelong Learning UK, June 2007, amended February 2010).

There is a requirement for further education teachers to have a knowledge and skills base in English literacy, English language, numeracy and ICT. The knowledge, understanding and personal skills requirements for these subjects are included in the teaching qualifications and documented in: The Minimum Core for teacher training qualifications for the Further Education and Skills sector. Please ensure you are using the most up-to-date version of this guidance.

The minimum core details the knowledge, understanding and personal skills in maths, English and ICT expected of all teachers in the sector:

- language and literacy
- numeracy
- ICT

Each of these sections comprises 2 parts:

- part A – knowledge and understanding
- part B – personal skills

Elements of the minimum core should be selected appropriate to the context and needs of each cohort of trainee teachers. The selected elements should be delivered and assessed across the following units:

- teaching, learning and assessment in education and training (level 4)
- developing teaching, learning and assessment in education and training (level 5)

Opportunities to develop these personal skills should be made available across the mandatory units as a minimum.

Learners are not required to have achieved a Level 3 Award in Education and Training or a Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training before undertaking a Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training. However, some learners may already have completed one or both of these qualifications.

Entry is at the discretion of the centre. However, learners should be 19 or over to undertake the qualification.

Registration is at the discretion of the centre, in accordance with equality legislation and should be made on the Portal.

Centres are responsible for ensuring that this qualification is appropriate for the age and ability of learners. They need to make sure that learners can fulfil the requirements of the learning outcomes and comply with the relevant literacy, numeracy and health and safety aspects of this qualification.

Learners registered on this qualification should not undertake another qualification at the same level with the same or a similar title, as duplication of learning may affect funding eligibility.

Achieving this qualification

To be awarded this qualification, learners are required to successfully achieve 120 credits: 75 credits from the mandatory units and a minimum of 45 credits from the optional units. At least 61 credits must be at level 5.

Please refer to the list of units below or the unit summaries in section 2 for further information.

To achieve this qualification, learners must successfully demonstrate their achievement of all learning outcomes of the units as detailed in this qualification specification. A partial certificate may be requested for learners who do not achieve their full qualification but have achieved at least one whole unit.

Practice requirements

The practice component is a vital aspect of high-quality initial teacher training.

There is a requirement for a minimum of 100 hours of practice and a requirement to evidence working with groups of learners to achieve this qualification.

There are different practice requirements for each unit in this qualification.

Effective teaching practice experience should ideally include:

- different teaching practice locations/settings/contexts
- teaching across more than one level
- teaching a variety of learners
- teaching individuals and groups
- experience of non-teaching roles
- gaining subject-specialist knowledge through workplace mentoring

Ideally, trainee teachers should have access to as many of these elements as possible during their teaching practice.

Observed and assessed practice requirements

There must be a minimum of 8 observations totalling a minimum of 8 hours. This excludes any observed practice completed as part of the Level 3 Award in Education and Training. Any single observation must be a minimum of 30 minutes.

Observations should be appropriately spaced throughout the whole programme and take into account a trainee teacher's progress. Centres should refer to Ofsted's Further Education and Skills Inspection Handbook to help them to make a judgement about whether a trainee teacher has met the required standard of practice in an observation.

For the education and training units, practice must be in a teaching and learning environment.

As stated above, there is a requirement for a minimum of 8 observations of practice. The 8 observations must be linked to the following mandatory units:

- teaching, learning and assessment in education and training (level 4)
- developing teaching, learning and assessment in education and training (level 5)

To be eligible for the award of credit for any 1 of the above 2 units, a trainee teacher must be able to provide evidence of a minimum of 2 assessed observations of practice that meet the required standard of practice. To be eligible for the award of credit for both units, a trainee teacher must be able to provide evidence of a minimum of 8 assessed observations of practice that meet the required standard of practice. Achievement of the unit theories, principles and models in education and training (level 5) is a prerequisite for achievement of the unit developing teaching, learning and assessment in education and training (level 5).

Some optional units from the education and training suite also require practice, including observation and assessment of practice. The number of observations of practice required and the number of hours to be observed and assessed are not specified for these optional units. These requirements are in addition to the observed and assessed practice requirements for the mandatory units identified above.

For some optional units taken from the learning and development qualification, practice must be in a real work environment and in the appropriate context with groups of learners or with individual learners. The number of practice hours required and the number of hours to be observed and assessed are not specified for learning and development units. These requirements are in addition to the observed and assessed practice requirements for the mandatory units identified above.

Learners who have completed the Level 3 Award in Education and Training and who are progressing directly to the Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training cannot bring forward any credit or observed and assessed practice.

Trainee teachers who have achieved the Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training can transfer 20 hours of practice and 2 hours of observed and assessed practice towards the practice requirements of the Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training.

Units

To make cross-referencing assessment and quality assurance easier, we have used a sequential numbering system in this document for each unit.

The regulated unit number is indicated in brackets for each unit (for example, M/100/7116) within section 2.

 Knowledge only units are indicated by a lightbulb. If a unit is not marked with a lightbulb, it is a skills unit or contains a mix of knowledge and skills.

How the qualification is assessed

Assessment is the process of measuring a learner's skill, knowledge and understanding against the standards set in a qualification.

This qualification is internally assessed and externally quality assured.

The assessment consists of one component:

- an internally assessed portfolio of evidence that is assessed by centre staff and externally quality assured by NCFE (internal quality assurance (IQA) must still be completed by the centre as per usual)

This qualification must be assessed in line with the Education and Training Foundation's guidance for qualifications in education and training.

The Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training is a competence-based qualification.

A competence-based qualification may be based on national occupational standards (NOS) and is a job-ready qualification that requires learners to demonstrate the skills and knowledge required to work in a specific industry. A competence-based qualification must be assessed in the workplace or in a real work environment (RWE) in accordance with the relevant assessment guidance. For further information on the guidance, please visit the qualifications page on the NCFE website.

Learners who are not successful can resubmit work within the registration period; however, a charge may apply.

All the evidence generated by the learner will be assessed against the standards expected of a level 5 learner for each learning outcome.

Unless stated otherwise in this qualification specification, all learners taking this qualification must be assessed in English and all assessment evidence presented for external quality assurance must be in English.

Internal assessment

Each learner must create a portfolio of evidence generated from appropriate assessment tasks, which demonstrates achievement of all the learning outcomes associated with each unit. On completion of each unit, learners must declare that the work produced is their own and the assessor must countersign this. Examples of suitable evidence for the portfolio for each unit are provided in section 2.

Internally assessed work should be completed by the learner in accordance with the qualification specification.

The tutor must be satisfied that the work produced is the learner's own.

A centre may choose to create their own internal assessment tasks. The tasks should:

- be accessible and lead to objective assessment judgements
- permit and encourage authentic activities where the learner's own work can be clearly judged
- refer to course file documents on the NCFE website

Please refer to the Education and Training Foundation's guidance for further information. This can be found on the qualifications page on the NCFE website.

Assessment guidance is provided for each unit. Assessors can use other methods of assessment as long as they are valid and reliable and maintain the integrity of the assessment and of the standards required of this qualification.

Supervision of learners and your role as an assessor

Guidance on how to administer the internal assessment and the support you provide to learners can be found on the NCFE website.
