Volunteering with NCFE

Technical Education Advisory Board
(TEAB)

NCFE is an educational charity and leader in vocational and technical learning, committed to powering a smarter education eco-system. We combine over 170 years of education experience with deep insight into what is needed and what works. In doing this, we're working for a fairer education system for all learners – one that improves the choices they have and empowers the choices they make.

NCFE works in a variety of sectors to develop new technical qualifications and products, including 9 transformative new T Level technical qualifications, in the following sectors:

These transformative new qualifications will play a fundamental role in equipping your sector with the skilled workforce it needs, through developing and nurturing future talent, and we'd love for you to be a part of that.

What is the TEAB?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Our Technical Education Advisory Board (TEAB) is a voluntary consultative forum for sector professionals, employers and organisations who have a significant stake in the outcome of the qualifications NCFE develop • TEAB members represent their organisation in providing feedback, guidance and insight on the industry and the delivery of qualifications • TEAB members, alongside their colleagues, provide scrutiny of the qualifications at key milestones, reviewing and validating materials in a draft format and giving constructive feedback • Due to the nature of this work, TEAB members support on a voluntary basis

Why join the TEAB?

Insight

Whether you're an employer looking to gain an insight into a qualification which will affect your sector and future workforce, or an education provider looking to better understand a qualification, the TEAB is an excellent opportunity to learn and increase understanding, as well as give your input and help shape education in your sector.

Continuous Professional Development

Being a member of the TEAB is an excellent way to exercise your professional knowledge and skills. We can offer confirmation of any time dedicated to work as part of the TEAB for your CPD portfolio, showcasing your contributions.

Volunteering

Volunteering can be incredibly rewarding, and studies have even shown that volunteering has a number of health and wellbeing benefits. NCFE is a registered educational charity, and volunteering as part of the TEAB is a truly impactful way to support our work.

Networking and Connection

The TEAB is a network of like-minded individuals, and we've heard in the past that a secondary benefit of being involved in the TEAB is the opportunity to connect with other individuals and organisations in your sector. We're also working to make sure that we credit and celebrate the involvement of our TEAB members, and are increasingly sharing this on our website and social media.

Hear from our existing TEAB members

"I feel a sense of pride that I have hopefully helped contribute to crafting a really exciting and purposeful course."

- Media, Broadcast and Production TEAB member

"The discussions with others in the sector are rich and varied and allow you to reflect on your own organisation and learn from others. I am delighted to be part of the TEAB and really value the opportunity to be part of this exciting suite of qualifications."

- Education and Childcare TEAB member

"My work on the TEAB has counted towards my CPD hours for revalidation. The fact I can complete the activities in a window of opportunity, this flexibility is really helpful."

- Health TEAB member

"The TEAB gives you an opportunity to have your voice heard about new qualifications and make a difference, adding your own expertise and experience to new qualifications."
