	 factored in to planning to eliminate the opportunity of students plagiarising work. Provider marks must be shared with students. There's no opportunity for students to resubmit evidence or retake an assignment, but you should make sure students have time to appeal a marking decision internally. Ensure students know how and when they can appeal. Assessors should only intervene during a practical assessment if the task is being performed in an unsafe manner, no support or guidance is permitted. 	Visit the qualification page on our website, or find our Tutor and Provider Guides within the assessment pack on the Portal which explain our approach to marking and moderation.
March – April	 Providing all assessment and IQA activity is complete, submit students' marks on the Portal: Ensure colleagues responsible for submitting student marks on the Portal have the 'Moderation' permission added to their Portal account. As soon as IQA processes are complete, and the student review period has passed you can submit marks in the Portal. It's important to check submitted marks on the Portal match the marks given on the assessor feedback to student's form. Discrepancies may lead to delays in releasing results by the advertised date. You can edit submitted marks on the Portal until 4 May for Core and 16 May for all other OS. 	 Submitting marks on the Portal short video. Approach to moderation and sample size guides are available on our website. The NCFE Portal user guide provides details on how to view the students selected for sampling.
