

Features and benefits

NCFE Level 2 Diploma in Aviation (601/8996/4)

Minimum entry age: Pre-16

Resources: Sample Internal Assessment Tasks, Qualification Support Pack (QSP), Evidence and Grading Tracker

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
There is a bank of optional units to choose from	Centres can choose to deliver a set pathway of optional units to allow flexibility	A varied list of options provides motivation and interest. It also provides the learner with more options for progression	It provides employees with a wide breadth of knowledge and understanding

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
The qualification is graded	Grading helps to distinguish learner achievement and can provide motivation	Grading can motivate learners to achieve	Employers can distinguish the abilities of potential employees

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
Learners can progress to employment within the aviation industry or further study	Progression opportunities provide motivation for successful completion	Varied progression opportunities provide learners with options and incentives to do well	Employers in this sector know that learners have been trained to employer-approved national standards
Can support work experience or workplace visits	Work experience or workplace visits enable learners to gain realistic insights	Realistic insights into the world of work	Opportunities to offer work experience to would-be employees

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
Comprehensive Tutor and learning resources enables a range of delivery methods	Suitable for teaching a variety of learners in different settings and reduces preparation time	Comprehensive resources for a range of learners	N/A
This qualification is assessed via a portfolio of evidence	This is a robust method of assessment which is flexible for centres to deliver	A portfolio of evidence allows for many different types of learning styles, so learners can demonstrate their learning in the way that suits them best	Employers will be able to view the portfolio to gain a greater understanding of the learners' skills and experience